California Region counties including Orange County must close the following sectors:

- Indoor and Outdoor Playgrounds
- Indoor Recreational Facilities
- Hair Salons and Barbershops
- Personal Care Services
- Museums, Zoos, and Aquariums, Movie Theaters
- Wineries
- Bars, Breweries, and Distilleries
- Family Entertainment Centers
- Cardrooms and Satellite Wagering
- Limited Services
- Live Audience Sports
- Amusement Parks

The following sectors in the Southern California Region will have additional modifications in addition to 100 percent masking and physical distancing:

- Outdoor Recreational Facilities: Allow outdoor operation only without any food, drink or alcohol sales. Additionally, overnight stays at campgrounds will not be permitted.
- Retail: Allow indoor operation at 20 percent capacity with entrance metering and no eating or drinking in the stores. Additionally, special hours should be instituted for seniors and others with chronic conditions or compromised immune systems.
- Shopping Centers: Allow indoor operation at 20 percent capacity with entrance metering and no eating or drinking in the stores. Additionally, special hours should be instituted for seniors and others with chronic conditions or compromised immune systems.

Hotels and Lodging: Allow to open for critical infrastructure support only.

- Restaurants: Allow only for take-out, pick-up or delivery.
- Offices: Allow remote only except for critical infrastructure sectors where remote working is not possible.
- Places of Worship: Allow outdoor services only.
- Entertainment Production including Professional Sports: Allow operation without live audiences. Additionally, testing protocol and “bubbles” are highly encouraged.

The state Stay-at-Home Order does not modify existing state guidance regarding K-12 schools.

The following sectors are allowed to remain open in the Southern California Region when a remote option is not possible with appropriate infectious disease preventative measures including masking and physical distancing:

- Critical infrastructure
- Non-urgent medical and dental care
- Childcare and pre-K

The Southern California Region will remain in the Regional Stay-at-Home Order status for at least three weeks. The Southern California Region may come out of the Stay-at-Home Order after three weeks, if at that time, hospital ICU capacity projected four weeks out reaches 15 percent. Then individual counties such as Orange County will return to our Blueprint for a Safer Economy tier determined by their case rate and test positivity. If the ICU capacity for the Southern California Region is less than 15 percent after the three-week period, the ICU capacity will be assessed weekly to determine when the order can be lifted.

In addition, the state’s Stay-at-Home Order will place the following restrictions on counties in the Southern California Region on non-essential travel lodging:

- Except as otherwise required by law, no hotel or lodging entity in California shall accept or honor out of state reservations for non-essential travel, unless the reservation is for at least the minimum time period required for quarantine and the persons identified in the reservation will quarantine in the hotel or lodging entity until after that time period has expired.

During this time, the state Stay-at-Home order encourages members of the same household are to maintain physical and mental health by safely going to a park, hike, walk or bike ride when safe to do so and socially distanced. Orange County residents are also encouraged to keep connected with loved ones virtually.

spreading faster and farther throughout the state than it has since the pandemic began.”

“We must come together as a community,” said Pulver, urging everyone to take the necessary actions to counter the COVID-19 threat, including wearing a mask, avoiding large gatherings and maintaining social distancing.

“Protecting oneself may be an individual choice, but protecting others is up to our collective efforts.”

Pulver again thanked the community for its unprecedented support thus far.

“On behalf of our Board of Trustees and the entire Los Alamitos USD Family, we want to extend heartfelt thanks to each of you for the patience, understanding, support, determination, and grit you have demonstrated in working as our partners through the COVID-19 pandemic,” said Pulver.

“This is an extraordinary community of students, teachers, support staff, administrators and families who have worked together to ensure that our students’ ongoing educational needs are met at the highest levels, and we should all take pride in what is being accomplished,” he added.

of Education

“This means all Los Alamitos Unified schools will remain open, and our in-person instructional programs will continue,” said Pulver, so long as LAUSD is “following the CDPH COVID-19 safety guidelines.

He said state and local health officials have cited a large body of evidence that the health and safety measures that have been put into place, which include physical distancing, face masks, ventilation enhancements, smaller cohorts, timely contact tracing and notifications, and enhanced cleaning and disinfecting protocols, have been effective in combating COVID-19.

“As a result, Dr. Mark Ghaly, California Secretary of Health and Human Services, has said schools are not the source of the current COVID-19 surge, continue to have low case and transmission rates, and may remain open during the pandemic,” said Pulver.

Further, Pulver asked the community to “accept and personalize” the governor’s message. “The virus is

HOROSCOPES

ESOTERIC ASTROLOGY AS NEWS FOR WEEK DEC. 9 - 15, 2020 HANUKKAH, NEW MOON SOLAR ECLIPSE - SOMETHING ESSENTIAL DISAPPEARS

Monday is Sagittarius new moon, solar eclipse, 23 degrees. Eclipses, a six-month event (three months before, three months after), signify something essential falls away; it is complete, and something new takes its place. During the day disciples recite the Great Invocation* and contemplate the Soul's meditative seed thought for Sagittarius, "I see the goal, I reach that goal, and then I see another." We ponder upon this seed thought each morning as we awaken, reviewing our daily goals. During the day we visualize and then accomplish our goals. The next morning we see new goals. This is the life of the Disciple.

Thursday evening the first night of Hanukkah, eight-day candle-lighting Jewish festival of lights, begins. Sunday is both the 3rd Sunday in Advent and the festival of Santa Lucia. Hanukkah, Advent, Santa Lucia - all festivals of preparation for the new light of Winter Solstice. As we light our candles, we rekindle the hope and promise that within the darkness of matter (Kali Yuga) a promising new light will soon appear.

Looking at the United States chart, it's important to note transiting (in the sky) Jupiter and Saturn (in the sky) are on the natal U.S. Pluto (transformations occurring). We see the effects all around us in every town and city. Saturn mean strictness, discipline, solitude, hard work, separation and an elimination of what is no longer useful. Jupiter means expansion of all that's needed to bring forth the new culture and civilization. Transparency, although uncomfortable, is needed for the new culture and civilization to emerge. Saturn is both teacher and Dweller on the Threshold. The Dweller shows us past missteps and the Teacher helps us learn lessons. Everyone, everything (even nations) is always in a developmental (learning) stage. Jupiter tells us "love underlies all the happenings of the times." It takes an expanded mind & heart to understand this last statement. Jupiter and Saturn are moving together these days, on their way to Winter Solstice, where they will inaugurate the new era at 0 degrees Aquarius. The revolution, all around us, has already begun. Uranus, ruler of Aquarius, is the revolution. Revolutions come forth after much suppression, calling humanity to sacrifice for an idea (in this case, liberty and freedom). Truth and transparency is are major factors needed for the new era emerging.

(Note: for daily writings & updates see my FB page (Risa D'Angleles) & also Daily Studies on my website, www.nightlightnews.org/)

ARIES: Your public, professional and business interests will accelerate and be emphasized. This will begin slowly and progress successfully as new ideas are formulated and new contacts are made in the world. Do stay in touch with family, siblings, neighbors and friends, especially now. What you seek to achieve brings both ups and down. Success is assured. Balance achieved. You eventually become a Capricorn.

TAURUS: You know to be very careful with resources and spending. For a bit of time there may be a limited amount of money but since you know about money more than any other sign (except Capricorn) you know how to reverse all limitations. Do not worry should you encounter greater expenses in the coming weeks. Your determination will change the outflow to inflow and create financial stability.

GEMINI: Life becomes more serious as you ponder upon both small and great philosophical questions. First tend to all finances, including preparing for taxes, paying insurance and/or bills. The serious thoughts you may have will be about resources shared with another, seeking (or freeing yourself from) deeper intimacy, and the appropriate use of your energy in order to have optimum health. Discipline seems to be following you. Structure your day with it.

CANCER: Soon you will begin to ask yourself how to interact with others differently so that communications and interactions are more effective, productive and caring. You are noticing your interactions are not bringing you the satisfaction needed. You will also notice greater compassion and kindness when confronted by another's pain. You will explain your pain. Comfort and healing will then begin.

LEO: In the coming months notice yourself developing greater efficiency with time, managing detailed tasks, making decisions with greater fluency, and organizing not only your reality but also the reality of others. You will recognize more efficient structures are needed at the workplace. It's possible you will seek other job situations and environments that are more oriented to healing modalities than to simply business. Take care of your health.

VIRGO: During these unusual days, we are given time to refine ideas that have appeared in the last many months. Everyone is being called to prepare for the new era bringing us into the light of day. Notice your creative abilities are assuming new forms. This will continue. You may think about your child within. All of us are really just children seeking comfort. Soon you'll learn things never learned before. It's a good, deeply transforming creative time for you.

LIBRA: Your foundations (psychological, home, relationships, etc.) are shifting. Home is your refuge, the place where art, harmony and beauty happen. Coming home from work in the world has profound effects on you need for comfort and safety. Deep psychological changes and insights occur when you are creative. You are determined to have beauty everywhere. You will ask yourself where you security and safety are reassured and what brings you contentment and solace.

SCORPIO: You will seek what you want and need through the use of your will power. The wisdom teachings tell us those who have developed their Will to Good, accelerate their path to heaven. But one must be very careful using the divine gift of will. Make sure your will is used harmoniously for everyone, that is serves the greater good by always helping others. You will learn the secrets of creation. You will seek a community. You will be called to teach, write, publish and speak. If you are "willing."

SAGITTARIUS: Now you begin a newer and better understanding of money, resources, what you value, and what you're worth (not the same as self-esteem). Security and safety, unexplored till now, will appear allowing an understanding of your true and present needs. You will recognize in greater measure your abilities and gifts and where they are best used. You will spend, invest, lend, and use your money in ways that create prosperity. Slowly and assuredly you come home again.

CAPRICORN: You will become more aware of how you appear to the public, what you look like in terms of behavioral characteristics. Although you will identify that none of these are who you truly are, you will want to be seen in the world as professional, at ease, attractive, magnetic, and assured. You listen to what others say about you and if they are very perceptive you understand they offered a gift to you that transforms you and your enthusiasm and self-confidence grow and glow.

AQUARIUS: The idea that a new economy is about to come forth will be very apparent and you realize it would be good to pay attention to the economic ups and downs occurring in the world. The past year has been different, strange, unusual and at times difficult. A sense of beneficence begins though you may not know why. Spend more time daydreaming, resting, contemplating and being in retreat. From these comes your future ways and means. Solutions will be highly original. Call forth your true home to appear.

PISCES: As the coming months and years unfold you will find yourself shifting priorities and direction. Your values are continuing to expand, including more and more intuitive knowings. What you thought you could never do, you now consider as real possibilities. A dream comes forth. What is it? You begin to set goals, knowing you can work to achieve them. You have developed over the years a strong and centered focus. Continue to review and assess priorities and needs. These will inform you of your direction. A golden heart deva visits.
